96-97/100

BECKUSTATOR

Ves Beck

“Le vin agit sur plusieurs tableaux en alliant les aspects suaves, salins, tendres et incisifs. Le résultat est un vin qui exprime son terroir, qui souligne sa grandeur et qui termine sur de l'éclat, de l'élégance et de la persistance.”

93-95/100

Jeff Leve

THE WINE CELLAR INSIDER

“The wine is elegant, refined, energetic, and bright. Noticeable tension accompanied by fresh red fruits influenced by limestone soils, providing a strong sense of marine-influenced berries in the mid-palate and finish.”

96-98/100

“Clos Fourtet stands as the undeniable flagship of Saint-Émilion in 2024. This is the wine I longed to find in 2024: forged in hardship, and utterly magnificent.”

93-95/100

Colin Hay

“Clos Fourtet in 2024 is intensely floral, but in the most subtle and delicate of ways. A wine that is very aromatic and lifted in that aromatic profile. Soft, subtle, delicate and highly refined but also very natural – not polished or worked. Luminous, crystalline and clear, pure and precise with that lovely under-labouring of the crumbly limestone tannins... Very delicate but very complex texturally. Very tactile. A real coup de coeur and expressing a real empathy between terroir and vintage.”

B My Bordeaux

Chryster Bycklum

“Fresh acidity, ripe tannins, dark fruits, blackberries, elegant and nuanced... saline notes, bright and refreshing. The most Burgundian Clos Fourtet I have tasted.”
