

CHATEAU·QVINTVS

2025

Rising from the dramatic limestone promontory of Saint-Émilion, Quintus unites its historic terroirs into a breathtaking, singular harmony.
The Quintessence of Saint-Émilion.

Quintus 2025 captured a rare alignment of seasons — the structure of 2019, the depth of 2020, and the radiant energy of 2022, drawn into a single vintage.

Pauline Comin, Vineyard Manager

From the very first tastings, the blend defined and asserted itself. The 2025 will become the benchmark against which measure all future vintages at Quintus.

Claude Diligeart, Cellar Master

A beautiful expression of fruit with focus and great definition.

James Suckling
97-98

Ultra-precise on the attack, very, very flavorful. The wine evolves juicy and extremely fragrant.

Jean-Marc Quarin
97

Wonderful complexity and outstanding length. It's balanced and beautifully put together. I think it will shine right out of the gate.

Jeb Dunnuck
92-94

A very promising Quintus, increasingly expressive of its outstanding terroir origins.

Bettane+Desseauve
95-96

The 2025 Quintus comes barreling out with exuberant notes of juicy plums, crushed black cherries, and licorice.

Lisa Perrotti-Brown
93-95

Dense and concentrated, it's structured and framed by youthful tannins and concludes with a spicy, lead pencil-inflected finish.

The Wine Advocate
91-93

This is bright and upfront with a softly cushioned expression.

Decanter
93

A seductive, dark chocolate-tinged finish that is a bit of a guilty pleasure. Very luxuriant.

Neal Martin, Vinous
92-94
