Remírez de Ganuza

TINTO RESERVA 1996

94 RATING

"The 1996 could be called the Chateau Latour of Rioja (...) This looks to be a prodigious Rioja that should age effortlessly for three decades. Anticipated maturity: 2005-2030."

TRASNOCHO 2010

95 RATING

Judging the future of this wine has to be by the balance of all its components-by the texture and quality of tannins that can help you predict a long life ahead.

GRAN RESERVA 2005

94 RATING

(...) The oak is firmly in the driving seat on the silky smooth finish with tantalizing blood orange and spice on the aftertaste.

Limited to 2,400 bottles due to be released in 2013, this is certainly an impressive Rioja worthy of long-term maturation. Drink 2018-2030+

“...this brilliant red is on a par with the great fine wines of the world, where three figures sums for a single bottle are common, and sometimes four.”

Remírez de Ganuza

BLANCO FERMENTADO EN BARRICA 2018

"His reds are more famous, but this remarkable white wine from Jesús Mendoza is every bit as exciting. Made from Viura with 20% Malvasía and Garnacha Blanca, it's like a white Rioja crossed with a top Burgundy.

The new French oak is very well integrated here and the freshness of the cooler vintage really shines through on this pithy, refined, floral cuvée showing undertones of fresh pastry and a core of lemon butter and beeswax. 2022-30"

GRAN RESERVA 2010

"A powerful indulgence from a great vintage, with fine tannins overlaid by truffle, wild herbs, dark fruit and liquorice, followed by spicy oak.

It's bold; backed up by warm alcohol. No shrinking violet, faded Gran Reserva this"
