They will be available through La Place de Bordeaux via the following negociants : Barrirère Frères, Compagnie Médocaine des Grands Crus, Crus et Domaines de France, CVBG, Ulysse Cazabonne, Twins, represented by Le Bureau des Grands Vins.

Located in the heart of Germany's Mosel region, Weingut Günther Steinmetz has been crafting terroir-driven wines for generations. Our estate is renowned for producing wines that reflect the unique characteristics of our historic vineyards, and these new releases are no exception.

Wintricher Geierslay Kabinett 2023: From the steep, slate soils of the Wintricher Geierslay vineyard, this Kabinett showcases bright acidity and vibrant fruit, balanced perfectly by subtle sweetness and distinctive minerality. It's a wine with energy and finesse, designed to please both enthusiasts and collectors.

Piesporter Treppchen GG 2023: Hailing from the celebrated Piesporter Treppchen vineyard, this Grosses Gewächs (Grand Cru) is a powerful and complex expression of our commitment to quality. Working in partnership with Le Bureau des Grands Vins, these wines will be offered through la place de Bordeaux from the 22nd of October 2024, offering wine lovers an opportunity to explore the depth and diversity of Mosel Rieslings. Each bottle is a reflection of our estate's philosophy: to express the purity and character of our vineyards through meticulous craftsmanship and respect for nature. We are proud to see our wines enter such a renowned marketplace as Bordeaux.

Both the Wintricher Geierslay Kabinett 2023 and the Piesporter Treppchen GG 2023 represent the essence of our terroir and our passion for winemaking. We believe these wines will resonate with Bordeaux's discerning audience.
