SAINT-ÉMILION GRAND CRU CLASSÉ

Château Faugères 2022

Saint-Emilion Grand Cru Classé

Mai 2023 – La Revue du Vin de France

92-94/100

Impressionnant de concentration, ce vin ne manque toute fois pas d'énergie et de droiture pour canaliser la puissance du millésime. Une matière saine et longue pour une garde sereine.

Mai 2023 – Falstaff, Peter Moser

94/100

Deep ruby, inky, opaque core, purple reflections, brightening on the rim. Ripe cherries, black forest berries, liquorice and orange zest, light nougat. Deep, complex, muscular, delicately spiced style, fine acidity, chocolatey with a blueberry finish; a seductive and robust wine.

Mai 2023 – The Wine Cellar Insider, Jeff Leve

92-94/100

Black fruit, flowers, chocolate, plums, and mocha shine in the nose. The palate displays more of those lusciously-textured, black cherries, plums, and chocolate. The wine is rich, creamy, long and sweet, with vibrancy, energy, and a touch of savory herbs on the backend. The wine blends 70% Merlot, 25% Cabernet Franc and 5% Cabernet Sauvignon. 14.5% ABV. Drink from 2024-2045.

May 2023 – Tasting book, Markus del Monego

95/100

Dark purple color with violet hue and black core. Elegant and refined character with concentrated nose, Ripe damson and blackberries, hints of crushed raspberries in the background. Vanilla and dark 95p chocolate, mild spices and fine oak. On the palate juicy fruit, balanced and velvety tannins, great freshness and length.

April 2023 – Jane Anson

93/100

Velvet ruby in colour, intense and concentrated, as is on brand for this estate, with careful extraction keeping things in line. Clear reduction right now, but as it opens you get creamy fruit, edges of fresh mushroom, and a welcome bitter mint-chocolate finish. Vincent Cruège technical director, Silvio Denz owner. Harvest September 5 to 27. 36% new oak.

April 2023 – Yves Beck

95-96/100

Faugères se révèle avec une évidente subtilité, très inspirée de son terroir d'ailleurs. Ainsi, il affiche des nuances crayeuses et du bois de réglisse, notes complétées par des parfums de cassis. L'attaque se révèle de manière prudente, élégante. Elle annonce un vin puissant mais velouté qui est soutenu par des tannins fins tandis que l'acidité confère de la structure et de la salinité. J'ai rarement dégusté Faugères avec autant de race, de caractère. Le changement est évident et réjouissant. Belle réussite 2028-2052

April 2023 – Vinous, Antonio Galloni
93-95/100

The 2022 Faugeres is one of the most vibrant, nuanced wines I have tasted from the property. Expressive floral and savory top notes meld into a core of racy red-toned fruit.

April 2023 – James Suckling
94-95/100

A juicy and nicely chewy young red with crushed stone and salt, with black berry and blueberry character. Medium-bodied with excellent tannins and a persistent finish. Crunchy. 70% merlot, 25% cabernet franc and 5% cabernet sauvignon.
