

Founded in 1760, Lanson is the fourth oldest Champagne Houses. Drawing on our family heritage and unique expertise, the men and women of Lanson have been guided for more than 260 years by their love of a job well done and their love for others. The Lanson Cross, marked on each bottle, is timelessly emblematic of this philosophy.

Hervé Dantan, Lanson Winemaker, carefully crafts elegant wines, that are characterised by an incomparable freshness and vitality.

The unique and authentic style of our Champagnes rests on immutable pillars: a meticulous selection of Crus; a vinification according to the traditional Champagne principle; an important collection of reserve wines, and a longer ageing in cellars.
