

Tim Atkin and Parker give excellent ratings to the new vintages of Marqués de Murrieta

This month, the world's leading wine experts have published their reports on the DOCa Rioja, in which they tasted and rated thousands of wines.

Luis Gutiérrez, the Spanish Advocate of the magazine "The Wine Advocate" (Robert Parker) has published his new report this month. A review of the entire appellation in which all the new vintages of Marqués de Murrieta reaped high rates:

- Castillo Ygay 2012 97 points
- Dalmau 2020 96 points
- Capellanía 2019 95 points
- Marqués de Murrieta 2020 94+ points
- Marqués de Murrieta Gran Reserva 2016 94+ points
- Primer Rosé 2022 92 points

The prestigious critic Tim Atkin has also once again placed our winery at the top of his 2024 ranking of Rioja wineries. The British "Master of Wine" has published his report on Rioja, a detailed analysis in which, in addition to tasting and rating more than 1,300 references, he includes his traditional classification of wineries throughout the region based on qualitative parameters.

In the rating section, all of our wines have once again achieved excellent ratings:

- Castillo Ygay 2012 98 points
- Dalmau 2020 96 points
- Capellanía 2019 95 points
- Marqués de Murrieta 2020 94 points
- Primer Rosé 2022 92 points

All these awards undoubtedly boost our commitment to the pursuit of excellence, and are the result of the constant work of the entire Marqués de Murrieta team.
