

Barolo D.O.C.G. Bricco Ambrogio

The Wine

Enrico Scavino's experience, recognized the quality of this undiscovered beautiful cru and decided to purchase it in 2001. By luck this cru was the only one of the estate untouched by the hail in 2002 and debuted as a solo showing lots of personality and potential even in such a difficult year.

Bricco Ambrogio has an intense and multifaceted aromatic spectrum. The core is soft and polished through a beautiful acid-tannic balance. There is an underlying depth in this Barolo and the finish is long and nuanced.

The Vineyard

Village: Roddi

Cru: Bricco Ambrogio

Altitude, Exposure: 275 mt, south, south-east

Soil: marne di Sant'Agata fossili, Limestone

Planting year: 1947, 1949, 1950, 1969, 1971, 1972, 1977, 1980, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2008

The Grape

Nebbiolo