Vieilles Vignes 2024 opens with a breezy touch of fennel, gentle and inviting, and leaves behind a subtle sweetness on the finish – something I've never encountered in any previous vintage. The vivid acidity of 2024 seems to lift this slightly round goddess onto her tiptoes, slipping her into crystal heels. She walks with the bold elegance of a Beijing street queen, catching the wind even on a casual stroll. Let the wine flow slowly across the palate, and the textures of propolis, white peach, and lotus-root powder soup unfold like woven silk. As you linger, white pepper and celery seeds leap and dance like bright musical notes, adding rhythm and pulse to every corner of your taste buds. Honestly, a wine this brilliant was never meant to be kept to yourself. My only advice? Find someone you adore and enjoy it together.

C'est avant tout la finesse qui marque le bouquet de la cuvée Vieilles Vignes de Suduiraut. Il révèle de subtiles notes de fleurs blanches, respectivement de tilleul et de poires. Légèrement crémeux en attaque, le vin cumule ampleur et précision. De fins amers consolident son expression aromatique communément avec une acidité structurante. Un vin sapide, persistant et redemandant. A savourer à table, avec des poissons d'eau douce par exemple.

[...] Rich, textured and wonderfully deep, the Vieilles Vignes is seriously impressive. The 2024 is not quite as effusive as some earlier vintages, but that is probably a good thing for the long term. Readers will find a potent, deep white loaded with personality. Pear, marzipan, white flowers, mint and chamomile build into the deep, resonant finish. Floral notes and brisk acids resonate on the close.

[...] Textured, elegant, yellow stone fruit, fine acidity structure, harmonious, good persistence, good development and certain ageing potential.

Bitter fennel, toasted almond and citrus peel on the opening, good depths, well structured, with white pear flesh and oyster shell salinity on the finish. Will benefit from a few years in bottle to emphasise the subtle complexities.

[...] Fruity, and juicy, the wine leaves you with fresh pineapples, and white peaches.

Pale lemon yellow. Apples, some citrus, fruit driven, elegant nose, vanilla, detailed nose. Fresh acidity, apples, some citrus, nuanced, elegant texture, fruit forward, long.

Subtle aromatically with a distinct chalky, citrus edge. Ripe and plush on the palate but long and fresh as well. Plenty of depth. Balanced.
